Living Serendipitously

By Jeannie Smith

I buy alot of books and loose interest in them quickly. This one really is a fast read! It grabs your attention. I find myself looking forward to having the time and making the time to read this.

I am looking at things in life a little differently because of this book. I am recomending this to anyone that will listen to me about it. I can't get enough of this book. It is changing my life in a very positive way just by reading it, I'm becoming more aware of the differences. Anyone who reads this book can't help but become more aware of living life better, or having it more full. I bought this book for my step-daughter ,my son and my daughter-inlaw because I know they will benefit from reading this.

This books is a life changing book! Thank you for writing this book!

Not That Wonderful

By Jaye

After reading the reviews I expected a wonderful book. The author writes in a hyperactive, frantic tone - the kind of person you might want to run away from at a party to avoid being cornered. The book is chock full of other people's ideas and quotes... basically the book is a string of ideas and quotes used to support her own writing, which skitters across the surface and lacks depth. Take away the famous people and time tested ideas of others and there is not much here.
