Jumping on the bed - a funny, worst-case scenario!

By Joe

Walter, the lead character, discovers what can really happen when you jump on the bed!

This is a book that our two boys really enjoy and is a frequent request before bedtime. My boys think that the concept of an energetic boy crashing through the floor and disrupting the lives of those living in apartments below is absolutely hilarious. The story is greatly enhanced by the wonderful illustrations that complement the vivid verbal description of Walter's adventures. They also enjoy all of the interesting objects, food, toys, and people in each of the apartments and the rhyming that occurs throughout the text.

A Favorite Bedtime Read!!!

By Dawn J.

We love this book! It's wild, funny, and charming. The meter and rhymes make it fun to read out loud. The bold illustrations are eye catching. Even the names of the characters are hysterical!

If you've read "Roar of a Snore" then you'll love "No Jumping on the Bed" too!
