Good for homeschooling, though I did supplement with novels

By J. A. Baudoin

If you're homeschooling a 9th grader, this text has the usual ninth grade offerings before "Core Curriculum" came along. The units are divided by theme; each selection is followed by a good number of comprehension questions, vocabulary development, grammar lessons, and a writing lesson. Each selection has an introduction to help you understand more about the author or explain elements to look for in the writing itself. I will list SOME of the selections below. I omitted about half but supplemented with novels. Overall, a good choice and used books are very inexpensive.

The Most Dangerous Game

The Birds

The Red-Headed League

One Ordinary Day, with Peanuts

The Gift of the Magi

The Secret Life of Walter Mitty
