By Breanna Wright

Instead of watching tv or something, my younger sister usually colors. But coloring can be dull and it doesn't give you the same feeling as journaling. When I stumbled upon this item I knew I had to get it for her! It combines the idea of journaling, writing down feelings or thoughts, with the concept of art like drawing or coloring. It also is like it say, positive! It's definitely great for girls of all ages! Even for boys I would recommend it. Anyone who hates journaling on regular paper but still wants to be able to express themselves. It allows you to do art of all kind, picture taking, coloring, drawing, writing, even creating poetry and the like. I found it at a store for more expensive, and Amazon definitely has the best price.

This Is A One Of A Kind Journal

By Lynched

I fell in love with this book right away. The more I flipped through the pages, the more in awe I became. Whoever put this book together must have put a lot of thought into it. This is something you can record just about every positive thought or action and even years from now, be able to look through it and reminisce about those positive memories. I love it! This is a great concept for sure. This journal is a journey! You will enjoy it and your friends & family will want one too. I'm thrilled to have found it!
